By Simonne Horwitz

Wits University Press, South Africa, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 230 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto illustrates how this rapidly growing, underfunded but surprisingly effective institution found the niche that allowed it to exist, to provide medical care to a massive patient body and at times even to flourish in the apartheid state. The book offers new ways of exploring the history of apartheid, apartheid medicine and health care. The long history of Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital (its full current name) or Bara, as it's popularly known, has been shaped by a complex set of conditions. Established in the early 1940s, Bara stands on land purchased by the Cornish immigrant John Albert Baragwanath in the late nineteenth century. He set up a refreshment post, trading store and hotel on the site - in what is now Soweto - which was a one day's journey by ox-wagon from Johannesburg. The hotel became affectionately known as Baragwanath Place (the surname is Welsh, from bara meaning bread and gwenith meaning wheat). The land was then bought by Corner House Mining Group and later taken over by Crown Mines Ltd. but was never mined....
