Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tumultuous waves hit the land, and back again, they roll to the sea. Silent screams hit deaf ears. In vain, they return, in anguish do sigh. -Dilara Mawla Monzur Like every girl, she has a dream, a beautiful one, of building a home on strong foundation-love and mutual respect. No sooner does Sheila step into her new home, she sees her dreams brought down to dust by the alien structure and atmosphere of the place she now calls home. The heart screams in agony, but no one is there to hear! The story is set in Bangladesh. The writer gives a slight glimpse of the cultural diversity that exists in her country. Sheila tries to fit into the narrow framework of of what she felt was alien culture, one that she had not experienced before.
