Mary Horowitz is an average high school senior who just moved from Salem, Massachusetts to a small, slightly corrupt New Jersey town. Her life has not been going according to plan lately. Her grandmother recently passed away, her best friend Kelly has been missing for two weeks, her parents don t get along, and on the eve of the homecoming dance, she finds out that her boyfriend is cheating on her. Distraught, Mary goes home after the homecoming football game to witness her family being brutally murdered. Being the only survivor and witness, Mary is sent to a local psychiatric hospital by the town mayor and sheriff for protection . Two years pass and Mary comes to realize that what happened that night wasn t what she thought. As the plot unravels, so does Mary. Her time locked away has changed her into something evil. She has become a member of the walking dead, taking revenge on the town and everyone that wronged her. Follow the life of Mary Horowitz...
