A Beginner's Guide to Women

By Perri Iezzone

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is intended to be used as a guide by men to find harmony in all their relationships with women, passionate or platonic. It is meant to be used as a light to shine on the darker areas of the opposite sex and is by no means an attempt to explain the feminine condition. In this book I use tango dancing as a metaphor and a laboratory to convey my observations to the reader in a way that I hope will be easily grasped. A woman is complex and she is a difficult subject to tackle. so don't try to tackle her. She has to deal with things a man never encounters, like something called slut-shaming. She is a linear thinker while a man thinks sequentially. She's hard to please so you need to be prepared to work hard, especially if you are trying to be romantic. Men tend to think of holding a woman the same way they think of holding a football: grasp tightly and don't let anyone rip it...
