Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Detective Jack Temper is known for his foul language, determination and pit bull attitude. He has become a cult hero in his home town for saving the life of a young child, but now he is about to encounter a man on a rampage that will change his own life forever. His good friend Don Rodriguez (the town psychic), has given him insight on a man so evil that if they can't stop him, only tragedy and heartache will follow. It's a race against time for Detective Temper and Don Rodriguez to find the killer before he can continue to ruin the lives of more innocent women. This novel will disturb you, shock you, and cause you to think about who you walk by or let into your own home on a daily basis? Have you ever thought about the people you see or speak with every day? Are you conscious of what is happening all around you? Are you truly aware of your own surroundings? Maybe you just brushed up against greatness while walking in a downtown crowded sidewalk. Could one of these individuals that passed you by be destined to become the next great athlete, scientist or politician that may change the world one day? Do you realize it has to work both ways. What if you just looked into the eyes or bumped into someone so evil they have a one way ticket to hell. Maybe you got lucky today that they chose to let you live because it just wasn't your time to leave this world. Then again, what if they did notice you and your time is tomorrow? Hopefully you...
