Our statutes have adopted the system of infantry tactics directed by a law of Congress but its knowledge is extremely limited for want of the books containing it. No corps of cavalry or artillery has been yet formed in this State, nor has there been adopted any system of cavalry tactics or instruction of artillery. I have the honor to be, with the greatest respect, your most obedient servant, JOHN O FALLON, Adjutant General. Hon. James Barbour, Secretary of War. Wythe C. H, Virginia, August 21, 1826. Sir: Your printed circular franked by Mr. Southard has this moment come to hand, and I answer that many of your inquiries will, I presume, be answered by the adjutant general of this State in the most satisfactory manner, but on some of them I will briefly offer you my opinions. 5th. If the militia was duly perfected the volunteer system ought to be abolished. 8th. A classification of the militia--one class to be the active, the other the stationary--would doubtless be a great improvement. 9th. Age, and not the single or married state, must form the distinction. No measure adopted during the war of the revolution in relation to the militia gave such dissatisfaction as a draft confined to single men. 10th. Let the active class consist of men under 35 years of age. 11th. It would be an improvement to issue commissions only to inferior grades in time of...
