

Distillation of Hardwoods in Canada (Classic Reprint)

By John S Bates

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Distillation of Hardwoods in Canada The plants reflect the gradual growth of the industry over a long period of year. The demand for acetone, methyl hydrate, formalin, and other hardwood distillation products was very great throughout the war period and the industry served the nation in the war crisis to an extent that few realize. The industry enjoys the benefits of competent centralized control and is in a position to make the most of the situation within the limits of the uncertain economic and trade conditions that exist. It is gratifying to note that manufacture is carried beyond the stage of the crude products, where so many of Canada's industrial activities cease, and that the specially refined and derived chemicals are produced in Canada for domestic and export trade. It is a significant fact that a single well organized company handles practically all operations from the cutting of the wood to the manufacture and sale of the finished chemicals. Furthermore, the industry is now on a satisfactory basis of technical control, and science is...
