Excerpt: .is the only guarantee of moral balance and intellectual equilibrium. We ask then: Does the elementary school of to-day offer such a normal mental content, as a preparation for modern life, or does it only supplement and confirm traditional matter already supplied from elsewhere? Examining time allotments of various subjects in the curricula of the public elementary schools of America, England, Germany and France, we obtain some notion of the estimated importance of the three R's as compared with the three content studies Geography, Science, and History. From Dr. Payne's tables of the curricula of thirty representative cities, ten American, ten English, ten German, and the curriculum of the whole centralized French system, we obtain the following general conclusions. The average time allotment to the three R's in the elementary school systems of these four nations, is about 56 per...
