Excerpt: . . . 11 and the cycle went round and round again. With the progress that we have made in recent years with the 1993 and the 1997 budget agreements, we have seen that vicious cycle converted into a vir-tuous circle of greater economic growth, lower interest rates, larger surpluses, still lower interest rates, greater economic growth, more revenue collections, larger surpluses and so forth. It is that change in our Nations fiscal position and the under-lying doubling in our level of national savings that has contributed greatly to the strength of our economy over the last 6 years. It is that change which has brought the prospect not just of a balanced budget but of the elimination of the national debt over a 15-year period into view, that leaves us in a position to tackle the challenge of an aging society that is far stronger than...
