Upon such the meeting will act as a spur. 2. As there are some lives that do not shine except by putting them in the vicinity of lives that do, they must catch the light. 3. The meeting will put the teachers en rapport; harmonize the different departments, and awaken a more lively interest among teachers of the higher classes, as to what is going on in the lower grades. This is a very important point. Mistakes made in the primary department unfit the pupil for successful work in the higher grades, and give his teachers great vexation. It behooves teachers to take a lively interest in the training of pupils who, in the course of time, will be under them. 4. If knowledge is the secret of thrift, it is also the secret of 0 efficient...
