Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, altered the way I believe.

CHINA FROM WITHIN: IMPRESSIONS AND EXPERIENCES (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from China From Within: Impressions and Experiences The student lectureship on missions at Princeton Seminary was established in 1892 to provide an annual course of lectures on some topic connected with foreign missions of practical importance to those looking forward to missionary work. Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., an honoured alumnus of the Seminary, generously aided in securing the endowment for this lectureship and gave the first course which was published under the title, Foreign Missions After a Century. He subsequently delivered a course which became the basis of his monumental work Christian Missions and Social Progress. Dr. Dennis set a high standard for this lectureship, which has been continued for twenty five years, and which has not only given instruction to a large body of students, but has contributed to missionary libraries books of the greatest value, embodying the experiences and conclusions of eminent church leaders. In selecting Dr. Charles E. Scott, of China, to serve as the missionary lecturer for the year 1914-15, the Committee was in line with the well-established precedents of excellence. Dr. Scott's services in China as a successful evangelist, as a well-equipped teacher, administrator and church builder; his broad experience and thorough study of present day conditions entitled him to speak with authority on the subjects he selected. The course of lectures as delivered attracted large audiences and was followed with eager attention and evident profit.
