

The Court of Arbitration (Classic Reprint)

By Elliott Fitch Shepard

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Court of Arbitration Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce: In response to your invitation to address the merchants and business men of this city in relation to the Court of Arbitration, and the methods by which disputed questions can be brought before the court for adjudication, I have the honor to submit a few words. The court is the offspring of the commerce of this port, and its facilities for a summary settlement of disputes may be availed of by every merchant, and indeed by every resident of the great cities of New-York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newburg and Albany, as well as of any other part of the collection district of this port, upon all commercial and mercantile questions. The members of this Chamber may cite one another before this court, upon a notice of not less than two days nor more than five days; and both they and all other parties have the right to name additional arbitrators to sit with the official Arbitrator, if they so elect. If they...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
